Legislative Report #10, 2025 is attached. There are only a few weeks left in this session and as the Assembly heads into the home stretch we will be pressing to get several bills across the finish line. Check the current status of each bill listed for a quick glimpse at where things stand.

Property tax continues to be the big challenge for local government and the Governor's office. Much will depend upon what property tax reform finally looks like as campaign promises and the delivery of services hang in the balance.
